

Our high quality polymer products and services provide customers across the UK with affordable solutions to their moulding requirements.

Composite exterior components

Composite, thermoformed & solid surface cast products

Lamplas offers a complete solution to customers across a wide range of industries. With over 100,000sqft of production space, a multi-skilled and flexible workforce, and over 35 years experience, we are well positioned to provide supply chain solutions to many different markets. We have developed successful partnerships with customers in the leisure vehicle, holiday home and domestic markets, by offering only the highest quality goods and services. Our wide range of components not only enhance and improve our customers products, but are excellent value for money moulded solutions in today's highly competitive markets.

Key Features

- ◆ Lamplas operate to BSEN ISO 9001:2000 quality system
- ◆ Working with our partners, we provide integrated design & production solutions.
- ◆ Moulding services include Composite spray-up, hand lay-up and Closed Mould RTM systems, large scale vacuum forming along with solid surface casting.
- ◆ In-house design, model & pattern making, with mould tool manufacture and prototype build of components.
- ◆ Component finishing & assembly, including fittings, fixtures, brackets, electrics & paint finishes.
- ◆ Full aftersales spares & warranty support

Solid surface production

Benefits of using Lamplas

- ◆ Our proven dependability & closeness of working relationship allows you to focus on core business activities
- ◆ Increases your capacity and capability
- ◆ Helps you maintain a competitive advantage
- ◆ Helps you reduce costs
- ◆ Helps you meet changing customer demands
- ◆ Gives you access to external expertise

Lamplas Polymer Engineering

Pont Lane, Leadgate, Consett, Co. Durham, DH8 6LA

www.lamplas.co.uk

T: 01207 502474

F: 01207 500407